

Have you ever considered becoming a mentor?

Virtual Mentor Training

Join us for new professional learning sessions designed especially for current mentors. Mentoring is one of the best ways to demonstrate your leadership, improve instructional practice, and strengthen the teaching profession. Your participation fulfills the 6 hour Mentor Training requirement.

Dates:

Mondays
April 26, May 3, and May 17th

Time: 3:00 pm to 5pm

Facilitators:

Lynn Palmateer
Jerry Place
Annette Romano, NBCT

Register on Front Line

Session 1: An Overview

- Mentoring & Induction
- Setting a Context
- Role of Mentor

Session 2: Various Support

- Types of Support
- Adult Learning
- Developing a Trusting Relationship

Session 3: Strengthening Practice

- Effective Communication
- Providing Constructive Feedback

"Mentoring is reciprocal. I learn as much from my mentee as my mentee learns from me."