

The Capital Region BOCES Faculty Association (CRBFA)
Employee Longevity Award
2024-25

CRBFA wishes to invest in the development of our employees in hopes that they can continue to find long term success here at Capital Region BOCES, and ideally a career. Therefore, each year, the Faculty Association will offer three, $500 awards to members choosing to take coursework that can improve their performance as a BOCES employee.

In order to qualify for the CRBFA Employee Longevity Award, one must:

Be an active member, in good standing, and be at least a 5 year employee who wishes to take a class or classes related to their content field, job/class appointment, or toward their certification. Include any literature describing the continued learning coursework you wish the award money to be used for.

Applicants:

Please provide a short essay explaining why the CRBFA should invest in you. The applicant should explain how the completion of a particular coursework will help to better develop you as a professional, enrich your students' experience, and also position you as a more valuable employee to the BOCES as a whole.

*Prove enrollment in a course that takes place during the 2025-26 school year. Complete course before 7/2026. Provide CRBFA with evidence of a passing grade or course-completion certification by 9/2026. The Faculty Association reserves the right to ask for a return of the scholarship money if this information is not provided.
